Art Unit: 1614

Claims 13-15 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in Paper No. 6.

This application contains claims 13-15 are drawn to an invention nonelected with traverse in Paper No. 6. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancellation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negative by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 7-9, 12, and 16-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Broder et al, patent of record for the reasons fully set forth in paper no. 7, pages 2 and 3. Applicants' remarks are noted. Applicants state, "Broder et al. does not disclose or suggest that such intravenous and oral administration of docetaxel can be used to treat hepatocellular carcinoma," (page 4, lines 21 and 22 of paper no. 8) Broder et al states in col. 13, lines 29-32 that "among the types of carcinoma which may be treated effectively with oral paclitaxol, docetaxol, other taxones and their prodrugs and derivatives are hepatocellular carcinoma". And on lines 55-59 state that "method of the invention, in selectively producing high blood concentrations of antitumor agents is particularly valuable in the treatment of liver cancer including, e.g. hepatocellular carcinoma and liver metastases". It is clear from the above that docetaxol could be useful in the treatment of hepatocellular carcinomas. Clearly a side-by-side comparison of the oral administration ~~is~~ the intravenous administration is needed.

With regard to the other agents being employed in the Broder et al. patent, the instant claims are directed to "comprising" which would include the additional agents.

Moreover, the Broder et al. claims (A col. 27 and 28) are directed to "hepatocellular carcinoma and liver cancer (claim 36).

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
